All foodies of Manila are in for a treat this April!

The World Street Food Congress 2016 (WSFC16) will be held in our humble little abode made of 7,107 islands aka the Philippines.

CNN said in a statement that the Philippines is one of “the world best food destinations.”

The street food feasting festival WSF Jamboree will happen for 5 days from April 20 to April 24 this 2016, so grab a friend and bring your A-game when you feast on the different cultures and flavors brought to you by the best street food chefs, vendors and hawkers from around the world!

It's the first time the annual food fest will be held out of Singapore since the festival started last 2013.

Hawkers from Indonesia, China, India, Thailand, Vietnam, Singapore, South Africa, the United States and the Philippines will be participating in the event.

100,000 people are expected to pour into Manila just for the food fest.

Panel discussions will be held, as well as food presentations for those interested in starting a food business.

What're you waiting for? Mark your calendars and get ready for the feast of a lifetime!
