

Title: Something To Look Forward To This April: 2016 World Street Food Congress in Manila

Date of publication: Thursday, 25 February 2016.

Author: Shirley Park

Name of publication: <http://giredaily.com/>

<http://giredaily.com/something-to-look-forward-to-this-april-2016-world-street-food-congress-in-manila/>

24 Street food masters and hawkers from up to 10 countries will be coming together for an international feasting festival in the 2016 World Street Food Congress which will be held at Bonifacio Global City, Taguig, Metro Manila, from April 20th up to the 24th.

With this year's theme, "The Comforting Flavours of Home", 100 thousand people are expected to pour into "CNN's named: one of the world's best food destinations," Philippines. Invited for the Dialogue are distinguished international speakers and presenters such as: KF Seetoh, Stephen Werther, Sangeeta Singh, Richard Tan and William Wongso.

It's definitely an event to look forward to this April 2016, as what we Filipinos love the most: Food, Fun and Fellowship! Don't miss it, see you there!

Venues:

JAMBOREE:

Federacion Drive and 9th Avenue

DIALOGUE:

7th Avenue and 25th Street

To know more about the World Street Food Congress visit: <http://wsfcongress.com/>